SOME THINGS MY FATHER PUT INSIDE MY VAGINA
2016-2018

An autobiographical testimony: A series of digital prints of 3D models based on real-life objects, photos and memories

It is a silent war, an invisible one. There are no explosions. No armies gushing. No cameras sniffling. Whatever happens there, no nation will stand still. The battlefield is just a house. The bed is neat and pink. A spoon, a toy or piece of soap. He is just a father. She is just a daughter. Another year has passed.
